RESOLUTION BY ALAMEDA COUNTY ON SIERRA FIRE

(Ed. Note: The Board of Supervisors of Alameda county, apparently not being very busy on September 30, passed this somewhat involved resolution "noting" the loss of the Sierra County Court House in Downieville which burned recently.)

WHEREAS, the historic and revered court house of the County of Sierra, State of California was totally destroyed by fire of unknown origin; and

WHERE, the contents of this historic edifice, rich in hsitory and irreplaceable, were also destroyed, including a new library rated as one of the best in the entire state of California; and

WHEREAS, the Sierra county court house was the scene of many important trials in the early days of this state that decided many future cases from a law standpoint; and,

WHEREAS, the building was among the oldest in California and rated as a real California landmark; and

WHEREAS, the loss of the building and the loss of the historic records are a distinct loss to the people of the entire state;

THEREFORE, be it resolved that the board of supervisors of the county of Alameda, in regular meeting assembled, go on record noting the loss of this historic building and records contained therein; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be entered into the minutes of the board of supervisors and that copies be sent for record to the Historical Society of the state of California and to the board of supervisors of the county of Sierra, as well as to the state library of the state of California at Sacramento, California.

ALBERT W. WILLIS DIES AT WEIMAR

GRASS VALLEY: Funeral services are pending in the Hooper and Weaver Mortuary for Albert William Wills, Grass Valleyan who died after two years of illness at the Weimar Sanitarium in Placer county yesterday morning.

Wills for several years was secretary of the Mine Workers Protective League. He was born in Cornwall, England, 69 years ago. He came to the United States when 22 years of age, and for 15 years had lived in Grass Valley on Mill street.

Surviving are his sons, Ben Wills of San Francisco, and Al Wills of Trinity Center, Trinity county; a daughter, Mrs. Helen Crase of Grass Valley; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Queenie Kern of Calsitoga, Napa county; and eight grandchildren.

Regional Meeting Of Parent-Teachers

GRASS VALLEY: Grass Valley on Wednesday welcomed delegates to the Third District Parents and Teachers association conclave. The meeting was held in the Methodist church.

Mrs. Myron R. Schall of Sacramento, president, presided. Mrs. Robert Hamilton, program chairman, presented Mrs. Rollin Brown of Los Angeles, who is state president of the association. Her topic was Greater Vision with Vigilance.

The workshop was conducted by Mrs. Orlando Procissi, seventh vice president. Other chairmen were Mesdames O. T. Illerich, emblems and publications; Donald Cramer, magazines; Vernon Alvant, library service; C. P. Hull, parent education; George C. Huber, parliamentary procedure; and Mrs. Christian Anderson, first vice-president and director of home service for the third district. Luncheon was served the assembled delegates at neon.

RAINS SLOW WORK ON DAM

NEVADA CITY: Forrest Varney, manager of the Nevada Irrigation District, reported yesterday that the recent rains have slowed up work on Scott's Flat Dam and also has delayed the reopening of the Milton-Bowman tunnel.

The construction company in charge of the work at Scott's Flat finds that deep mud handicaps the crew in their use of heavy earth moving machinery. Varney said that the earth filled dam is now within 30 feet of the crest as designed by the engineers. The debris that blocked the Milton-Bowman tunnel is being removed by means of pick and shovel men and the use of wheel barrows. Varney states that this is a slow procedure.

A camp, cook house and housing have been provided at the mouth of the tunnel and all supplies are trucked in.

N.I.D. DIRECTORS REJECT FLUME BID

GRASS VALLEY: The directors of the Nevada Irrigation District, at an adjourned meeting, rejected an informal bid for the construction of the DS flume. The bid was $68,420.40. The directors are preparing for a formal call for bids to complete the work.

William Durbrow, former manager, was authorized to negotiate for the sale of $100,000 in bonds, which were voted at the election of $1,000,000 in bonds three months ago.

P. J. Minasian, Oroville attorney, recognized as an authority on laws governing irrigation district, was employed at $175 per month. He agreed to attend the twice a month sessions of the board.

Residents of the Berriman ranch district presented a petition asking that water be supplied for domestic uses. Manager Forrest F. Varney was asked to study the matter and to conduct a survey and report to the board.

Durbrow Represents Chamber at Health Meeting in S. F.

GRASS VALLEY: Dr. O. F. Lang, chairman of the Grass Valley Chamber of Commerce hospital committee, appointed William Durbrow to represent the chamber in the public hearing which took place today in the San Francisco Health Department Auditorium, 101 Grove St.

Durbrow will represent this county in the conclave. Nevada county has been classified as a 14th priority to receive money from the state and federal government matching funds.

The state has appropriated $2,000,000 for hospital facilities on a matching basis with the federal government. The plan gives a general preference to rural regions with inadequate hospital facilities.

George Stanley Bates Finishes Boot Camp

NEVADA CITY: George Stanley Bates, 18, seaman second class, U.S.N., son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stanley Bates of 302 Drummond St., Nevada City, has completed recruit training at the U. S. naval training center, San Diego, California with company 68. During recruit training, his company won three personnel pennants. These pennants were won in competition with from 20 to 30 companies—each company consisting of approximately 130 men.

PATCHING WITH PLATINUM

The city crew was at work again yesterday patching the Washington Street fill. This writer didn't stop to see what they were patching the road surface with. It might just as well have been platinum, considering all the money the city has spent on that fill.

For at least 15 years the city has been patching that fill. Patch, patch, patch—they could have built a solid gold freeway from the Catholic Church to High Street if they'd built it right the first time.

There are patches on patches, and the interwoven strata of repairs is vulnerable to the inroads of inclement weather, extreme temperature variation, and heavy truck treads.

It looks all right on the books. No bond issue has been required for the Washington Street fill. There's been no big expenditure at any one time. Just a nickel here and a nickel there . . . always a few dollars for "repairs to Washington Street." But it's been going on so long now that it's obvious to a child that if the street had been built right, just once, with A-1 materials and construction, this costly patchwork wouldn't have to go on forever.

Whose fault is it?

ILLEGAL HUNTERS SPOTLIGHT DOES, FACE SEVERAL CHARGES

NEVADA CITY: Game Warden Earl Hiscox and Deputy Sheriff Percy Watters arrested Monte Derret, 34, of Dobbins, and Ralph Edalgo, 32, of Oregon House, both of Yuba county, while the pair were spotlighting deer in Pleasant Valley.

The game warden stated that when the car of the two was examined they found three does in it. Two rifles and a shotgun belonging to them were confiscated. The dead deer were given to the county hospital. The two were to appear before Justice of the Peace Charles A. Morehouse this morning.

Hiscox said that an old doe killed by the hunters had milk in her udder and that this probably means that a fawn will die.

The pair are charged with killing female deer, with killing deer in the closed season, with killing deer at night, and with killing deer with the aid of an artificial light.

Redistricting Co. Schools

Grass Valley: Voters of Nevada County will cast their ballots for or against the proposal for merging all school districts west of Donner Summit on November 18th.

Balloting will take place in each school district as is done when trustees are elected. The open meetings have been held in each school district affected, the first taking place in the Kentucky Flat District on September 29th and the last in Washington District October 16.

The local survey committee consists of Dr. B. W. Hummelt, of Nevada City, chairman; Del Powell, Grass Valley trustee; Lloyd Geist, principal of the Nevada City Elementary School; Gilbert Tennis, Grass Valley school superintendent; C. B. White of Truckee, Milton Thompson of Indian Springs, and Walter A. Carlson, the county superintendent of schools.

INFORMATION SOUGHT ON PLACE NAMES

NEVADA CITY: The Nevada County Historical Society will appreciate any information the readers of the Nugget may supply regarding these place names:

Alpha, Banner Hill, Bear River Boca, Bowman Lake, Carpenter Valley, Cedar Crest, Cement Hill, Chicago Park, Crystal Lake, Feeley Lake, Faucherie Creek, Findley Peak, Floriston, Fuller Lake, Lost Hill, Prospect Hill, Aristocracy Hill, and Town Talk.

The society is desirous of any information regarding the naming of the places, the person honored, when and why it was so named. Such information may be sent to the Nugget or to H. P. Davis, 526 Nevada Street, and will be gratefully acknowledged.

WANTS $11,000 FOR ASSERTED WRECK INJURIES

NEVADA CITY: In a suit filed in the county clerk's office yesterday, William F. Diehl against Frank Pelligrini, damages totaling $11,983.84 are asked for injuries allegedly suffered by Diehl while he was riding with Pelligrini January 18ht, 1947, and during which an accident occurred.

The plaintiff recites that Pelligrini was driving while intoxicated, that he was driving 75 miles per hour, and that he ran into a trailer causing an accident, allegedly injuring Diehl, so that plaintiff incurred hospital bills of $348.84, a doctor's bill of $125 nad lost $1510 in wages while incapacitated. The $10,000 asked is for exemplary damages.

GARRISON IS CHAIRMAN OF ENGLE FETE

NEVADA CITY: Fred Charles Garrison, chairman of the Rotary Club program committee, is making arrangements for a dinner honoring Congressman Clair Engle at 7 p. m., November 12th, at the National Hotel.

It will be a regular meeting of the Rotary Club, plus ladies' night. Invited are Lions Club members, ladies and guests, Soroptimist Club members, escorts and guests, American Association of University Women.

Each club is sending postcard invitations to its members. Registration must be completed with Garrison by November 10th. Franz Luschen will furnish dinner music for the fete. The combined chorus of the high school directed by William Tobiassen will sing.

POLICEMAN'S BALL

GRASS VALLEY: The annual Policeman's Ball will take place Saturday night beginning at 8 o'clock in the Veterans Memorial Building with Police Chief Frank Knuckey in charge of arrangements.

A 14-piece band has been engaged for the affair and tickets reportedly are selling rapidly. The event opens the winter season for indoor dancing. Refreshments will be served members of the police force and their guests at the conclusion of the evening.

FARMERS WANT TO BUY BEALE PROPERTY NOW

NEVADA CITY: Frank G. Finnegan, attorney for about 50 per cent of the land owners whose acreage was purchased by the U. S. Army for the Camp Beale cantonment stated yesterday that about 90 per cent of the original owners are desirous of buying back their former holdings.

The ranchers have a high priority, he states, ranking third after federal and local government agencies. The California National Guard has been guaranteed the use of 5,000 acres for a rifle range. Title to this acreage will be retained by the U. S. Corps of Engineers and the National Guard will lease it. There are 85,355 acres in the cantonment.

PLEASANT VALLEY MAN FINDS GOLD

GRASS VALLEY: E. L. Porter, owner of the Hartung Ranch in Pleasant Valley, Thursday exhibited a small vial containing an ounce or more of small gold nuggets, which he said he had gleaned from a four foot channel of gravel which underlies the property.

He stated that he had been working the channel along with other duties of the ranch, and the vial displayed represented but one clean up.

BIRTHS

BENEFIELD—In Nevada City, Nevada county, October 20, 1947, to Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Benefield, a daughter.

NEVADA CITY, GRASS VALLEY AND TRUCKEE PLAN PROJECT TO PROMOTE NEVADA CONNTY

NEVADA CITY: The movement for a County Chamber of Commerce received impetus Wednesday night when the Nevada City chamber voted $100 for initial work in organizing the larger group. Wednesday noon the board of directors of the Grass Valley chamber expressed great interest in such an organization. They appointed President Daniel Hirsch and themselves as a committee of delegates to attend the next organizational meeting of the county group. Directors expressed themselves as generally favorable to the formation of a Nevada County Chamber of Commerce, and unfavorable to the formation of a Nevada County Improvement Association.

A committee was appointed by the Nevada City Chamber of Commerce to attend the next meeting. Included in the committee are President George Hansen, Secretary Harry F. (Si) Sofge, Mrs. Roy, Deeter and City Councilman Art B. Innis.

The next meeting will be held in the Truckee area. Date was originally set for tonight but, because it was not convenient for many of the participants, it has been postponed.

City Councilman Arthur B. Innis initiated the movement for a county chamber. A meeting of business men from Truckee, Nevada City and Grass Valley on October 17 gave the movement further emphasis. Hansen, Cedric S. Porter and several Grass Valley business men have been among the most enthusiastic supporters of the project.

GOLD TRAIL RIDERS MEET AT ENGELL'S

GRASS VALLEY: The executive board of the Gold Trail Riders will meet Friday night, Oct. 24th, at the Engell Real Estate office for their regular monthly meeting. Plans for the forthcoming Halloween Jamboree to be held at the Memorial Building November 1 will be discussed. Members interested in holding a trail ride Sunday, Oct. 26th, are asked to contact any of the officers of the club.

FARM MARKET WILL BE OPEN THROUGH WINTER

NEVADA CITY: The Nevada County Farm Market will remain open, at least one day a week, through the winter months. This was the decision of the board of directors, announced yesterday.

It is believed the farm market will receive much patronage from tourists during the winter months. On Saturday and Sunday this week farmers will offer apples, walnuts and filberts. The Sierra-Nevada Rabbit Breeders Association will conduct a food sale on those days.

It was stated that sales of apples during the festival at the market had been very successful. Nevada county apples were dispatched to Maine and other eastern states, and to Canada.

ALBRO—In Nevada City, Nevada County, October 21, 1947, to Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Albro, a son.

ELK'S FALL PARTY

NEVADA CITY: Robert Paine, chairman of the Elks entertainment committee has announced that the Elks Autumn festival dance will take place Saturday night, November 1st.

Supper will be served between 10:30 and 11 p. m. with hot food featured. A five-piece band will play for dancing and during supper there will be an entertainment program.

Posse Elects Officers

NEVADA CITY: The Sheriff's Mounted Posse met Monday night and elected new officers. Bud Erich Braunlich succeeds J. Paul Hughes as captain. Berle Chapman is lieutenant and John Butts is first sergeant. James Peard is supply sergeant.

Automobile with steam engine, made by Richard Jeffrey when he lived on Race Street, Grass Valley, Nevada County, in 1900. It was presented to the Nevada County Historical Society Saturday night, October 18th, while at dinner in the Indian Mountain Ranch Resort and is now stored in the society's museum, an ancient fire house on Commercial Street, Nevada City. Pictured are Mrs. Doris Foley, president of the society, in the car's seat, and Mrs. Alvena Crump, daughter of Richard Jeffrey, who gave the car to the society. Along with the car, Mrs. Crump gave the patent papers her father had secured for the wheels. The patent covered removable spokes and hubs, obviated taking the wheel apart whenever an accident damaged either.—Bee Photo.

THE BIG 'STRIKE' ON THE HERCULES

By George B. Cooke

"Gee-Whizz, my boy!—but she was rich!"
She had the 'wall,' the dip, the pitch;
Free gold! Huh!—as big as peas
With pyrites as thick as fleas
In hairy dog on summer day—
Which gives him little time to play—
By Gum—she was a hummer.

"The experts came from near and far
From Butte, Jerome and Zanzibar;
For Hearst and Daly and Guggenheim
In khaki leggins—lookin' fine.
As deep in th' ground they couldn't see
Of course they all agreed with me—
Without a word of mild protest
'Th' biggest thing found in th' west'—
By Gum—she was a burd.

"The merchants sent their goods to me
My mother-in-law came out to see—,
My friends bowed low with pleasant smile
And none would let me walk a mile;
For an auto man, with portly mein
Sent me a plush lined Limmyzeane,
About th' price, Huh!—all he'd say—
'That's all right—don't mind th' pay.'
By Gum—that's nice in him.

"So I takes on some pride—of course
And figgered how I'd walk th' Bourse
A smokin' fine two-bit segars
And trade my burros fer Pullman cars;
No arketect could 'ere design
That palace in the air of mine;
For now my dreams had all come true
And wondrus was th' things I'd do—
For Luck had shorly run amuck
—Th' day I found thet ledge.

"But like th' dreams of yesterday
Like songs of th' long ago—
Like th' light that died in Sarah's eye
Because of another beau—
Like ships that glide from a Temprit port
With th' sailors lips apout—
—But why should I longer wail to you!
Th' Dam thing petered out."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY OF NEVADA CITY

Holds services every Sunday in their church, 114 Boulder St., at 11 o'clock.

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.

A Wednesday evening testimonial meeting is held on the first Wednesday of each month at 8 o'clock.

Our reading room is in the church edifice. It is open Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, holidays excepted, from 2 to 4 p. m.

The public is cordially invited to attend our services and visit the reading room.

"The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live" (John 5:25). This is the Golden Text for the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for Sunday, October 26. The subject is "Probation after Death."

Included in the sermon are the following citations:

Revelation: "And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away" (21:2-4).

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "This heavenly city, lighted by the Sun of Righteousness, —this New Jerusalem, this infinite All, which to us seems hidden in the mist of remoteness, reached St. John's vision while yet he tabernacled with mortals. This kingdom of God "is within you,"—is within reach of man's consciousness here, and the spiritual idea reveals it" (p. 576).

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

"Take Pen in Hand"

This column has been running for so long that its readers, in towns like ours all over the country, are beginning to "take pen in hand" and write us what they think.

Some of them take me over the coals for what I say—like the column I ran on planting alfalfa. Others write, "I liked your column yesterday, but..." All of them have different points of view.

From where I sit, that's the way it should be. Everybody's entitled to an opinion—and it's those very differences, and friendly criticism, that make for tolerance and better understanding—whether it's ideas on planting alfalfa or choosing between beer and cider.

The more folks air their differences right out in public, with a neighborly respect for the other person's liberties and point of view, the closer we are to the American principle of individual freedom—whether it's in a choice of crops or beverages.

CAMPTONVILLE NEWS

Mr. G. T. Price, son of Mrs. Lou Price, and Miss Alta Denton of Oakland were united by marriage by Judge Brown at the county court house in Reno, Nevada, Saturday afternoon, October 18. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Lou Price and son, Harold; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Shannon of Greenville and Mrs. Adalane Hendrix of Sacramento.

The Camptonville Union School began serving hot lunch Monday, October 13, which received a warm reception by students. The lunch will be cooked by volunteer mothers until some better arrangement can be made. Mrs. J. D. Rittenhouse prepared lunches the first week, and Mrs. Lottie Baker and Mrs. Catherine Stoddard officiated in the new kitchen this week. The lunch program is very popular with the children and seems to be off to a good start.

Many contributions of food have been received from members of the community, which is supporting the lunch program whole heartedly. Outstanding among gifts was a quarter of venison presented by Jimmie Stoddard. Jimmie shot the deer from the kitchen door of his home on Rebel Ridge, choosing the largest buck in the herd.

Camptonville Parent Teachers Association is sponsoring a pinochle and whist party at the school house Saturday evening, October 25, at 8 p. m. for the benefit of the hot lunch program. Prizes will be awarded for high scores. There has been a brisk pre-sale of tickets and a good crowd is expected. Mrs. Clifford Williams, heading a large committee of volunteers, is in charge of arrangements.

Edward Havey spent last weekend with his parents at home in Camptonville.

The Women's Society for Christian Service met at the Ed. Havey home Thursday morning. A pot-luck luncheon was served at noon.

Plans are under way for the annual costume Halloween party to be held October 31 for all Camptonville youngsters. Prizes will be awarded to those with best costumes, and a technicolor moving picture show will be shown by Mr. Ned Kissig. Cider and doughnuts will be served for refreshments. The annual Halloween party is sponsored every year by Mr. Acton Cleveland, assisted by members of the community.

Mr. Bill Groves returned from the hospital where he was confined with a broken leg suffered in logging operations near Camptonville several weeks ago. He is convalescing at his home here.

Eight and a half inches of rain fell in Camptonville during the past two weeks, breaking a long dry summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Stone and son, Nickolas Barton, spent several days in Truckee last week visiting friends and relatives.

STARCHING CLOTHES

Clothes that are to be dried in an automatic dryer should be starched with a mixture of about the same thickness as you'd use for drying outdoors on a breezy day. The gentle, tumbling action of the dryer is very much like the billowing of clothes in a breeze.

Tomatoes in cans trout shooters when time and supp are short—

Ever know a trouble-shoot He's a fellow who's hired straighten out trouble in a m or a mill or a machine whene it develops. Cooks have troubl too, and when you have troubl it helps to have a trouble-shoo around. In cooking, one ru short of items, one crowds time, has to feed six when t were expected. Our troub shooting candidate for this ki of thing is—a can of tomatoe

Handy on the shelf, alwa ready and willing in their sa can containers, canned tomato are the "stretchingest" food extend dishes that a cook ev encountered. They make a litt into a lot whenever you get in one of those "not enough" jam and they're quick as quick f getting right on the job. Toma toes in cans are a "must" f emergencies, a blessing on t pantry shelf, and don't forg what a good vegetable they ma just heated and served!

Here are two speedy stretch ers to set the pace. You'll enjo their savory flavor and the quick preparation time, thanks t ingredients in cans.

Speed-etti Special

- 3 tbsps. bacon drippings, olive or salad oil.
- 1 clove garlic.
- ½ cup sliced onion.
- 1 cup diced green pepper.
- 1 lb. ground beef.
- ½ cup grated American cheese.
- 1 No. 2 can tomatoes (2½ cups).
- 8 oz. can tomato paste.
- 1 tbsp. salt.
- 1-8 teasp. pepper.
- 9 oz. pkg. spaghetti.

Put fat in large frying pan place over moderate heat. Add garlic, onion, green pepper and meat; cook, stirring frequently until meat is in small pieces, and red color has disappeared. Add tomatoes, tomato paste, salt and pepper. Bring to a boil; cover and simmer for 45 minutes. Cook spaghetti according to package directions; add to sauce and cook 5 minutes more. Serve plain or with grated cheese. YIELD: Six servings.

Tomato Chicken Casserole

- 4 tbsps. butter or margarine
- ½ cup sliced onion.
- ½ cup thin strips green pepper.
- 1 No. 2 can tomatoes (2½ cups).
- ½ cup water.
- 1½ teasp. salt.
- 1 cup raw rice.
- 1 6¼ oz. can boned chicken.

Melt butter in frying pan; add sliced onion and green pepper. Cook until onion is slightly browned. Add tomatoes, water and salt; bring to a boil; add rice. Cover tightly. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) 50 minutes. Add diced chicken; cook 10 minutes longer. YIELD: 5 servings.

CRIB PADS

When your supply of baby crib pads runs out and a week of rainy weather makes drying seem impossible, your solution is the automatic dryer. As many as three crib pads at a time can be dried indoors and they'll come out sunshiny clean and sweet.

Funeral Thursday For Robert Fleming

NEVADA CITY: Funeral services were held in the Holmes Funeral Home Thursday afternoon for Robert Fleming who died yesterday morning at the home of his brother, Joseph LeMar Fleming.

The deceased was born in Nevada City 66 years ago. He was the son of the late Joseph Davenport Fleming and of the late Mary Warner Fleming. Only his brother survives. He had never married. He was a member of the Eagles Lodge and of the Native Sons of the Golden West.

The deceased was a dry goods salesman in the Weinstock Lubin store in Sacramento until three months ago, when his health began to fail.

Rev. Angus Miller, rector of the Trinity Episcopal church, conducted the service. Interment was in the Pine Grove cemetery.

THE - Diary of a 49'er

FROM THE BOOK EDITED BY C. L. CANFIELD

DECEMBER 8, 1951.—Friday we rode over and along Deer Creek to learn about a new method of mining being done there. The miners put in a long string of sluice boxes, dovetailing into each other with a lot of riffles in the bottom, then shovel all of the dirt in from both sides, forking out the cobbles and stones with a long handled, six-tined fork. A lot of dirt can be handled in this way, and although the creek bed had been worked over before with rockers and Toms, they say they are making more going over it the second time than when it was first mined. Rock Creek has all been worked out and abandoned and if Deer Creek pays to work over it ought to do the same. We decided to try it and will start in next week. First, however, we had to call a miners' meeting and adopt a new law to the effect that in a creek that had been previously mined, under the old twenty-four foot rule, the ground could be taken up and held in claims of three hundred feet in length and from bank to bank. We located two this morning for ourselves and got Platt, Dixon, McManus and Ames, our neighbors, to take up four more and transfer them to us by purchase, we agreeing to give them one hundred dollars each if the ground paid. That gives us control of eighteen hundred feet. Then the same crowd repeated the deal, so that each one holds fifteen hundred feet and among us we have over a mile of the creek bed.

Another letter from home and I received a box of things that mother made and sent. The dear old mother, what a queer idea she has of the climate out here. There were in the box a dozen pair of thick woolen socks, two pairs of mittens and a heavy worsted comforter. She said she thought they would be useful this winter and that I would like them because she knit them herself. God bless her! Here I am going around in my shirt sleeves. Best of all were daguerreotypes of her and father. She wrote that they had ridden over to Winsted to have them taken and that she wore her new black silk dress. Dad looks as spruce as a banker and mother is a beauty if she is fifty-two years old. Down in the corner of the box was a Bible. She said she knew I had the one she gave me when I came away, but maybe I had thumbed it until it was worn out. I would not tell her for a thousand dollars that I had not opened it for six months. Gracious! how it brought the old farmhouse back to mind. I can see her sitting by the fireplace, the knitting needles flying and she and dad talking about their only son three thousand miles away. Pard was as soft as I over the letter and the box and his eyes filled with tears, although he tried to disguise it by furiously blowing his nose. I wrote them tonight that no matter what happened I was going to start home in the spring to see them. I have been away nearly two years and can afford to go if I don't make another cent. It is some comfort to think I have made life easier for them.

DECEMBER 14, 1851.—We bought enough lumber in town last week to make a dozen sluice boxes and had it hauled out here. There were about five hundred feet and the mill charged twenty-five dollars for it and fifteen dollars extra for delivering. We have got the boxes made and, if it does not storm, will be ready to set them in the creek next week. If it's a wet winter we are not going to do very much, as a steady rain raises the water so that it would wash out our sluices in no time. In the meantime we will drift into the bank at the head of our old claim and see if the rich streak runs into the hill. Our neighbors down the creek have all got pretty fair claims and are doing well. Platt tells us that he and his partner have taken out over five thousand dollars since they started in and they have got considerable ground left.

Henry Shively was over to the cabin last night and brings news that there is going to be a grand ball at Selby Flat Christmas Eve, and that the landlord of the hotel promises a turkey dinner on Christmas. Henry says that the boys are betting that it will be turkey buzzard, as nobody ever heard of turkey in this country. He wants me to come over to the dance, but I don't think I will. The last ball I went to on the Flat I came away through the window instead of the door and it was altogether too lively for me. Nevada is putting on airs lately. The citizens are figuring on building a brick courthouse and the town has a weekly paper. It is not much of a newspaper, but we subscribed for a copy at twenty dollars a year to help it along. There are about thirty families settled down there and the moral people have got up a petition requesting the storekeepers to close on Sundays. That is asking too much, however, as everybody comes to town on that day to do the week's trading.

ENOUGH HOT WATER

The problem of a heavy laundry, a cramped family schedule and the fear of running out of hot water is solved at last by the automatic washer. Put one load of clothes into the washer the night before, another load during breakfast preparations and the last load while you're driving the man of the house to the office. Upon return, the whole wash is ready for the line and there's plenty of hot water left to do the dishes.

BEALE OFFICER LEAVES

GRASS VALLEY: Captain and Mrs. L. V. Hearn, last of the army officers connected with Camp Beale to make their home here, departed this week for a new assignment at Ford Ord.

The couple will visit relatives in Georgia and Florida. Captain Hearn was transferred to Camp Beale from the Third Army Fight Command Air Base at Page Field, Florida, in July, 1945.

Veterans' News

More than 76,000 World War II veterans in California, Arizona, Nevada and Hawaii have reinstated lapsed National Service Life Insurance policies valued at more than $520,000,000 during the past eight months under liberal provisions still in effect, according to the veterans' administration.

During the same period more than 900,000 World War II veterans throughout the country took advantage of the liberal reinstatement privilege and picked up policies valued at more than five and a half billion dollars.

Holders of lapsed NSLI term policies who have not yet reinstated have only a little more than two months in which to do so under the liberal reinstatement plan.

Until midnight, December 31, 1947, such veterans need only fill out a three question application form and pay two monthly premiums—one for the 31-day grace period during which the insurance was continued without payment, and the other for the current month.

Beginning next Jan. 1, veterans with policies which have been lapsed more than three months will be required to take a physical examination and qualify as insurable risks.

Term policies issued prior to Jan. 1, 1946, may be continued on that basis up to eight years from date of issuance. For policies taken out after that date the term period is five years.

Term policies may be converted into any one of the six permanent plans available at any time before expiration of the term. They are: ordinary life, 20-payment life, 30-payment life, 20-year endowment, endowment at age 60 and endowment at age 65.

QUESTION: May I change the beneficiary of my insurance policy by a last will or testament?

ANSWER: No. A change of beneficiary for your insurance policy must be made by written notice to the veterans' administration over your signature and it shall not be binding on VA unless received and endorsed on the policy by VA.

QUESTION: My son has renounced disability payments and I would like to know if he or his wife will lose their rights to other benefits provided by law?

ANSWER: No. Neither your son nor his dependents will lose their rights to other benefits provided for them by law.

QUESTION: If I accept the compensation check VA has sent me, does that mean I am satisfied with the rating given me?

ANSWER: No. The acceptance of the check does not waive any rights you may have in claiming greater compensation or pension than that which has been awarded you.

In less than a year on Tinian, U. S. Navy Seabees built 40 miles of airfield runways and taxiways and moved 12 million cubic yards of coral—the equivalent of three Boulder dams.

How desert winds help speed your voice across country

Above the desert floor we sometimes use wind-driven generators to supply power for long distance amplifying stations miles away from electric lines. When the wind dies, gasoline motors take over to charge the batteries at these repeater stations that give a "boost" to your voice as it journeys with the speed of light across the country.

"Here is your party" is the phrase our long distance operators are using more often these days. For calls East are going through faster now. To give complete service to the many new telephones we're adding, we must build more "speech highways"—all parts of the telephone system must grow.

Once again, we want you to use our long distance facilities when you wish . . . as often as you wish. At some switchboards during busiest hours, there may still be a delay. But we're doing many things to make long distance service . . . and all telephone service . . . better than ever before.

It takes new Working Dollars . . . millions of them . . . to build buildings and buy equipment needed to meet the demand for more service. They do not come from telephone bills, but from people who put their savings into the business. And to get new working dollars we must sell our services at fair prices which allow us to pay reasonably for the use of their savings.
